

Leeds travelled to top of the table, unbeaten Hull on Saturday for what turned out to be arguably their best performance of the season so far.

Hull came into this game winning all 6 of their games scoring 28 goals

An undaunted Leeds side looked confident from the start with passes to feet and good movement especially down the right wing with Crowther finding Fitzsimmons with some great through balls This link up led to the 1st goal with Fitzsimmons finding Webb who then found C Owen in the Hull box his cross come shot found A Owen attacking the far post and finishing confidently 1-0 Leeds Hull tried to get back in the game through their dangerous no 11, however Thompson for Leeds hounded his every move

Leeds back 3 of Grassham, Crowther and Kenneally stoically protected Donohue in goal

The 2nd period saw a change for Leeds with Garbutt-Everett, Kachosa, Staniforth, Richards and Barker introduced, again Leeds battled for every ball with Kachosa's attacking runs down the right causing problems for Hull.

Barker was a constant threat up front for Leeds with Hull putting 2 men on him, Leeds probably had the majority of the ball with again the defence protecting Donoghue, the Leeds keeper was in fine form smothering all Hulls attempts and being on his toes when Hull broke through, to win the race to the ball and clear the danger. Garbutt-Everett, Staniforth and Richards hounded every Hull attack forcing back any threats. Leeds still leading going into the final period.

Changes saw the Owen brothers rejoin together with Grassham, Thompson, Crowther for the crucial final 3rd.

Hull came at Leeds constantly, however Charlie Owen up front for Leeds was a constant threat on the counter attack feeding Fitzsimmons who's snap shot was saved excellently by the Hull keeper. Another Hull attack led to a dangerous corner headed out by Grassham for Leeds.

Again Hull attacked this time catching Leeds out down their right however Grassham again covered across to clear the danger.

Hull then earned another corner this time a dangerous ball fell to a Hull player who's shot was blocked by a diving Grassham who then got up to block a 2nd shot Leeds players were determined to protect their lead.

Another strong defensive performance from Thompson and Crowther saw Leeds clear and break on Hull, Fitzsimmons racing onto a Owen through ball into the Hull box, push from behind Fitzsimmons down - penalty !! ...sadly not seen by the ref Last few minutes see's Leeds win a throw A Owen to C Owen into the corner to waste a minute.

Finally the final whistle blows 1-0 to Leeds what a fantastic team effort the players run over to the parents supporting to take the plaudits they so richly deserve.

Mr Elliot's team talk needs bottling as it has generated a battling performance of grit and determination from 14 players proud to be wearing the white of Leeds.
